

A CAREER BALANCING

WORK LIFE

REVIEW OFFICER

Challenging work

As a review officer, you will be a senior, independent decision-maker in the Review Division, the final internal appeal body within WorkSafeBC. You will:

- Carefully review and analyze evidence
- Consider submissions and arguments
- Conduct oral hearings or inquiries where necessary
- Communicate your formal written decision in a manner easily understood by a diverse audience

You possess the following skills and qualifications

- A minimum of five years experience in adjudicative or decision-making capacity
- A university degree in a related field such as law, public policy, or the social sciences, and
- You are organized and have well-developed critical thinking skills, which are reflected through your strong written and verbal communication skills. Any exposure you may have had to administrative law concepts would be considered an asset.

Balance and wellness

As a leader in promoting healthy and safe workplaces, WorkSafeBC believes the health and fitness of our employees depends on a solid work-life balance. As a member of our team, you will have access to services that can help you get the most out of work ... and life. We offer numerous programs and benefits which include:

- Health and wellness programs and incentives
- Ongoing professional and personal development opportunities
- Flexibility for time off and leaves, in addition to your regular vacation allotment
- Onsite gymnasium with access to fitness classes and organized sports activities

Compensation

This position will be attractive to you if you are seeking a challenging decision-making role coupled with a generous, flexible compensation package.

More information on this position and information on how to apply is available at www.worksafebc.com/careers.

OPPORTUNITIES AT worksafebc.com

WORK SAFE BC

WORKING TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE