

A CAREER CONNECTING WORK SAFE

CASE MANAGER

Insurance, Legal, and Disability Management Professionals

At WorkSafeBC, your training in one of the above professions may qualify you for the role of Case Manager – a key position in which you can make a very real, positive and tangible difference in the lives of workers injured in British Columbia.

Within a supportive and service-oriented team environment, you will combine interesting investigative and analytical work with care and compassion – a perfect mix for achieving professional satisfaction from the work you do. The nature of your work – senior-level adjudication and delivering quality decisions and advice – is critical to helping injured workers rehabilitate and return to work.

As a qualified candidate:

- You possess an undergraduate degree and minimum three years' directly related adjudication and/or disability management experience or equivalent combinations of education and experience.
- You're a whiz when it comes to making complex decisions independently and applying law and policy to a set of complicated and challenging facts.
- Your expertise in managing a varied and complex caseload will come in handy as you address benefit, medical management, and employability status issues.

Balance and wellness. As a leader in promoting healthy and safe workplaces, WorkSafeBC believes the health and wellness of our employees depends on a solid work-life balance. As a member of our staff, you'll have access to services that can help you get the most out of work... and life.

- Health and fitness: We offer many ways for you to keep healthy and fit. Our Richmond office includes a fitness program offering equipment and classes, and staff outside Richmond is reimbursed the cost of gym memberships.
- Self-funded leave: Contribute 20 percent of your salary annually for four years, then take the fifth year off and use your accumulated funds.
- Earned Time Off: Start with three weeks vacation, plus the ability to add another 13 days off.
- Care and nurturing: Take leave in one or more periods to a maximum of five years for the care and nurturing of your children.
- Salaries ranging from $67,000 - $85,000; comprehensive extended health care and dental plans; first-rate pension plan
- A 36.25 flexible-hour, Monday to Friday work-week

More information on this position and how to apply is available at www.worksafebc.com/careers.