

Port Mann/Highway 1 Project Participating Workers and Families

Doug Adam
Field Engineer
With children Ariana (8 months) and Navarro (2)

Doug would like motorists to slow down and pay close attention as they drive through his workplace.

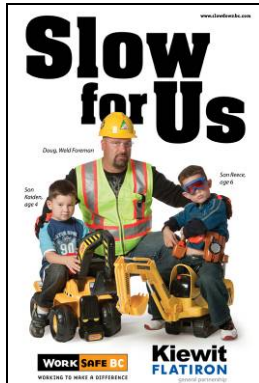

"I want to go home at the end of the night"

Esther E.
Labour Relations Manager
With husband Angelo and daughter Imogene (2)

Esther hopes motorists will avoid being distracted by their cell phones and slow down near the project sites.

"We love to cycle to the beach and make sandcastles"

Doug L.
Weld Foreman
With children Kaiden (4) and Reece (6)

Aggressive drivers are a challenge for Doug as he works to improve motorists' daily commute along the project.

"Single dad – I want to go home to my children every night."
