Introduction to classification units

We group all firms into classification units based on the products produced, the services provided, and the processes, technology, or materials used. The base premium rate reflects the cost of compensation and prevention in the classification unit.

This classification unit description provides an overview of the classification unit for general guidance only. Firms are classified based on this, our classification policies, Rate and Classification List, and other relevant classification unit descriptions. The items listed below are examples only; they are intended to be illustrative (not exhaustive). Every example may not apply to every firm in the classification unit.

Description This classification unit covers firms that operate restaurants or other dining establishments that prepare food onsite for immediate consumption. These firms may also sell alcoholic beverages, provide takeout services, or operate a bar in addition to serving food and beverages.

Also covered are firms, sometimes referred to as institutional caterers, that provide subcontracted food services for institutions such as schools, hospitals, or large corporations which have onsite cafeterias with food preparation facilities.

Establishment Here are some examples of establishments covered by this classification unit:

Cafe	Cafeteria
Doughnut shop	Food court booth
Restaurant

Services Here are some examples of services that firms in this classification unit provide:

Institutional catering	Subcontracted food services

Firms in this classification unit may also occasionally engage in other business activities. However, if they have a significant presence in any of the following industries, it may make sense for them to be assigned to another classification unit.

- 1) hotdog or ice cream sales from a truck or a cart (see CU 761023);
- 2) industrial catering such as providing food services to logging camps or construction sites (see CU 761018);
- 3) catered parties, weddings, or banquets (see CU 761019);
- 4) airline, bus or train catering (see CU 761052);

- 5) pub, bar, nightclub, or lounge (see CU 761034);
- 6) coffee shop, ice cream parlour, or other food concession that retails food for consumption on or off the premises but do little or no food preparation (see CU 761045);
- 7) retail bakery or delicatessen (see CU 741021);
- 8) chocolate shop or other food confectioners that make goods on their premises for over-the-counter sales to the final consumer (see CU 741026); or
- 9) legions or other similar social clubs (see CU 761057).
