Introduction to classification units

We group all firms into classification units based on the products produced, the services provided, and the processes, technology, or materials used. The base premium rate reflects the cost of compensation and prevention in the classification unit.

This classification unit description provides an overview of the classification unit for general guidance only. Firms are classified based on this, our classification policies, Rate and Classification List, and other relevant classification unit descriptions. The items listed below are examples only; they are intended to be illustrative (not exhaustive). Every example may not apply to every firm in the classification unit.

Description

This classification unit covers firms that wholesale, sell, or rent equipment, machinery, or parts greater than 500 lbs. Also covered are firms that service or repair such equipment either at their shop or at a clients location.

General information	Where "not elsewhere specified" is indicated in the Classification Unit (CU) title, please note that the CU is intended to represent business activities that are not appropriately represented elsewhere in the classification system. It recognizes that the current collection of CU descriptions are not exhaustive and that product or service type; processes or equipment; and industry competition must also be considered when determining a best industry fit.
When to contact us	Firms in this classification unit may also occasionally engage in other business activities. However, if they have a significant presence in any of the following industries, it may make sense for them to be assigned to another classification unit. 1) cars or trucks sales, service or repair (see CU 764003 & CU 764006); 2) light equipment, machinery, or parts (less than 500 lb) service or repair (see CU 764035); 3) heavy equipment, machinery, or parts manufacture or installation (greater than 500 lb)(see CU 712016); 4) commercial tanks or boilers installation or removal (see CU 721053); 5) rental of light industrial equipment, machinery or power tools (see CU 741016); 6) rental of forms lighter than 500 lb (see CU 741016); or 7) crane rental with the operator (see CU 721014). Please contact us if you have any questions about this or anything else related to this classification unit description.
