

WorkSafeBC insurance — protecting employers and workers

The fastest and easiest way to register for coverage is online at worksafebc.com/insurance/apply-for-coverage.

Registration

If you hire workers, you're required by law to register with WorkSafeBC. This includes incorporated companies that employ only their shareholders, and individuals who hire family members to work. If you're a B.C. resident and you hire contractors or workers to build or renovate your home, to provide casual ongoing services such as gardening or home repairs, or to provide in-home services, you may also be required to register. You can find registration requirements online at worksafebc.com/insurance.

Who should complete this form?

Complete this form (1800) if your firm is applying for registration as:

- A limited company or corporation
- A First Nations Band, cooperative, municipality, society, union, government agency, church, or district

You should also complete this form if you're registering to cover someone who works in or around your home (such as a babysitter, gardener, or labourer for home repairs).

If your firm is applying for registration as a partnership or proprietorship, complete Form 180C instead, available on worksafebc.com.

Note: B.C. workers are automatically covered for workers' compensation. However, proprietors and their spouses, as well as partners in a partnership, are not considered workers unless they have been granted optional coverage. If you're a proprietor or partner and you would like to be covered for workers' compensation, you must apply for Personal Optional Protection. Proprietors may also apply for coverage for their spouses. You'll find the application forms online at worksafebc.com/form-180c and worksafebc.com/form-18e7.

How to complete your application

Section 1 — Firm/resident information

Legal name of the firm/resident

Enter the legal name of your firm (e.g., the name under which the corporation is incorporated or registered with the Canada Revenue Agency [CRA]).

Type of firm

The majority of firms for which this form is completed are limited companies. If your firm is applying for registration as a First Nations Band, cooperative, municipality, society, union, government agency, church, or district, select “other.”

Section 2 — Contact information

Enter your firm’s contact details, including your business address, telephone and fax numbers, and email address.

Section 3 — Worker and payroll details

Worker information

Enter the number of workers in your firm, as well as the date your first worker was hired. A worker is anyone you employ on a full-time, part-time, casual, or temporary basis, including:

- Anyone who is paid on an hourly, salaried, piecework, or profit-sharing basis
- A spouse, child, or other family member of a principal or shareholder of your firm for whom earnings are reported for income tax purposes

Workers include those in administration and management, clerical staff, labourers, and active shareholders.

If you’re registering to cover someone who works in or around your home, complete this section as well.

Estimate of annual payroll

Payroll includes any means by which workers, family members, shareholders, office staff, casual labour, and administrative personnel are paid. When estimating payroll, be sure to include all wages, salaries, commissions, holiday pay, bonuses, and any other means by which a worker is paid. If your firm hires subcontractors who do not have their own WorkSafeBC coverage, also include the amounts paid to them.

Section 4 — Business operations

(Go directly to section 7 if you’re a resident who is hiring workers in or around your home.)

Description

Describe your firm’s business operations, including the nature of the goods and/or services provided to customers. For example:

- A convenience store selling miscellaneous groceries to the general public
- An owner-operator providing dump truck services
- A software company that provides consulting services
- A drywall company that works on commercial projects

Major revenue-producing equipment

Revenue-producing equipment includes the major items your firm supplies to complete a contract. Examples include skidders, loaders, backhoes, mobile welding trucks, dump trucks, cars used in the courier industry, and trucks used in the trucking industry. Hand tools and personal crew transportation equipment — cars, pickups, and crummies, for example — do not fall within this definition.

Major materials

These are the primary materials that your firm supplies to complete a contract at a fixed price. Examples include the paint for a painting contract, drywall for a drywall contract, or lumber or concrete for a construction contract. Supplementary materials — like nails and drywall tape — do not fall within this definition.

Section 5 — Previous registration and affiliated firms

If you, your firm, or a shareholder has previously had an account with WorkSafeBC, select “yes,” and complete this section.

For WorkSafeBC purposes, firms are affiliated when:

- One firm controls another firm, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries or other means, or
- Both firms are controlled by the same person or group of people, or
- The firms are controlled by family members — immediate, extended, or equivalent

Affiliated firms are common. For example, the shareholder of a limited company also operates a proprietorship; in this case, although the firms may not be working together, the firms are affiliated due to common control. If your firm is affiliated with other firms, list the firms, along with their contact details and, if applicable, their WorkSafeBC account numbers.

Section 6 — Trucking, taxis, or couriers

If your firm operates in the trucking, taxi, or courier industry, describe your firm’s business operations and services. Also supply information about the vehicles used by your firm and if you own or lease them. If your firm works in the trucking, courier, bus line, moving, or sightseeing industry and drives into other provinces, it may be able to pay its insurance premiums in one province only. For more information, visit worksafebc.com/form-18e3.

Section 7 — Residents who hire workers for home services

If you’re hiring workers to provide services in or around your home, please complete this section.

Section 8 — Contractors and subcontractors

If your firm is a contractor or subcontractor, please complete this section.

Section 9 — Corporations

Enter the contact details and date of birth of shareholders.

Section 10 — Certification

This application must be signed by an authorized representative of the firm that is applying for registration. Be sure to include a telephone number in case we need to contact that person for more information.

Firms that need assistance in meeting their requirements under the Occupational Health and Safety Regulation may wish to contact their industry association. Go to worksafebc.com/health-safety/industries to find contact details for industry associations.

Section 11 — Submission

Check the final checkbox when you are ready to email or mail us your form.
