Attention: Medical and Return to Work Planning (MARP) Providers

Subject: Contract Update

WorkSafeBC will direct award the Medical and Return to Work Planning (MARP) assessment service agreement to all incumbent service providers interested in continuing to provide MARP services for WorkSafeBC.

The new MARP service agreement will include all the approved facilities and approved personnel from the current agreement.

Any new proposed facility or personnel must be reviewed and approved by WorkSafeBC.

A disability management update information session will be held on December 1, 2021 from 4:00-6:00 p.m. PST. This will be a virtual session. It is mandatory for all MARP physicians to attend this session prior to commencing services under the new contract. Please contact Health Care Programs by November 15, 2021 if the MARP physician is unable to attend this session.
