Subject: New Program Manager

New Program Manager

We would like to take this opportunity to introduce Karen Takai as the new Program Manager, Karen will be taking over the PCMP program from Linda Calvert. Karen has been a physiotherapist since 2000 and has past clinical and management experience in vestibular and concussion rehabilitation in addition to a variety of other conditions. She has previously worked as a Quality Assurance Supervisor and is returning to our Health Care Programs team after 8 years as a Case Manager working with trauma and assault claims.
