Attention: RTWSS Providers

Subject: Upcoming Contract Amendment

We would like to notify the provider network that we are in the process of finalizing a RTWSS contract amendment to incorporate a Cognitive Job Demands Analysis (Cognitive JDA) service. Due to the nature of this work, at this time, only Occupational Therapists will be accepted as the personnel completing the service. If your company does not have an Occupational Therapist available to perform the service, we ask that you please decline the referral with an indication of the reason. The file will then be redirected to the next service provider.

The aim is for this service to come into effect in January of 2020.

Please contact us if you have any questions or concerns.
