Notice to Workers (Act and Regulation)

Section 21(2)(f) of the Workers Compensation Act states that employers must make a copy of the Act and the Occupational Health and Safety Regulation available for review by workers. Employers must also post and keep posted a notice advising where the copy is available for review.

At this worksite
The Workers Compensation Act and the Occupational Health and Safety Regulation can be reviewed here:

The Act and Regulation can also be found at worksafebc.com/searchable-regulation. For additional assistance, contact your supervisor or your health and safety representative.

